

Aaron Graham, BFA Technical Director Candidate

“CCM and my professors went above and beyond this year, pushing me to make the most of the year. Allowing us to explore and learn things that would not have come in even a normal year. This project and the year provided me with many new experiences and understanding of the amount of thought and effort that is put into installs and everything that we do.”

Big Toe Project

